Maryland State Delegate, District 26

District 26 Community Dialogue

Do You Know What's Coming to Your Backyard?

Data centers are expanding rapidly across Maryland — including right here in Prince George's County.

They bring big questions about energy, air quality, water use, and how our communities are affected.

Come hear what's happening, ask your questions, and make your voice heard.

Location: Oxon Hill Branch Library
6200 Oxon Hill Road, Oxon Hill, MD 20745
Date: Saturday, October 25, 2025
Time: 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Hosted by Delegate Jamila Woods

This is a local conversation with residents, advocates, and experts.

Why show up?

- Learn how data centers could impact your neighborhood
- Raise your voice on environmental and utility concerns
- Connect with others who want to stay informed and involved

Let's protect our communities – together.
